

Parent Consultation Questionnaire Results
Whole School
Autumn 2017

Is your child happy at school?

Yes	No
222	4

Do you feel your child is making good progress?

Yes	No
226	0

Do you feel your child receives an appropriate amount of homework for their age?

Yes	No
218	8

Have you had any concerns?

Yes	No
32	194

If so, do you feel that those concerns were dealt with effectively?

Yes	No
31	1

Parent Consultation Questionnaire Results
Foundation Stage
Autumn 2017

Is your child happy at school?

Yes	No
40	0

- He is really enjoying coming to school and settled really well
- She seems very happy and settled
- Little attention cry when going in but comes out happy and talks about everything she does happily
- I am very happy that my son has taken to reception very well
- My daughter loves school
- My daughter loves school and loves her teacher
- My daughter always leaves school with lots to say and a big smile

Do you feel your child is making good progress?

Yes	No
40	0

- I have seen a big different in my son with his reading
- Her mark making has improved and her phonetic knowledge
- I can really see an improvement in my daughters listening and general work/reading and writing we do at home
- My son is achieving
- My daughter is doing so well in all aspects of learning
- My son is repeating stories and songs at home
- Yes, it's useful to know where I can help

Do you feel your child receives an appropriate amount of homework for their age?

Yes	No
40	0

- We enjoy working on her homework tasks together
- My daughter loves doing her homework and can't wait to look in her book on a Thursday
- She loves doing it

- Our son loves showing us what he can do at home
- Our son enjoys doing his homework
- Our daughter is enjoying the homework given and is really enthusiastic when completing it
- She loves her homework

Have you had any concerns?

Yes	No
6	34

If so, do you feel that those concerns were dealt with effectively?

Yes	No
6	-

- Yes, my daughter needs to be reminded to tell a teacher if something has happened instead of waiting until I pick her up
- Teachers are always very helpful when concerns are raised
- No concerns, our son loves his teachers and his class friends
- Slight concerns over my son making friends but he seems very settled in now

What do you think the school does well?

- What can we do better?

- Everything is very good
- I think the school has made my son come on leaps and bounds
- My son has done lots already in his learning folder, its coming on well!
- Regular updates
- I think that the staff in FSPD really care about each individual child
- All perfect, coming on well and learning
- Teachers have a lovely relationship with the children. Love the extra things they do like Inspire sessions
- Making my children's confidence and learning ability grow
- Makes children feel welcome. Organisation and routine is also very good
- My daughter is happy while learning, couldn't be happier as a parent
- My son loves school, as do we
- Communication/Inspire sessions. Lots of fun activities to with the kids learn
- We are very involved. The school ensures we are informed of everything and have our input

Parent Consultation Questionnaire Results
Year 1
Autumn 2017

Is your child happy at school?

Yes	No
41	0

- No issues
- He is beginning to be happier at school and starting to settle in
- My daughter enjoys school and always has something positive to say about her day
- My daughter loves socialising with all of her friends
- My son really enjoys coming to school to learn new topics and playing with his friends
- Very happy, always telling me about his day
- Not once have we had a problem getting our son to school. Thank you
- Our son is very happy at school, and is doing really well

Do you feel your child is making good progress?

Yes	No
41	0

- Really pleased with our sons progress, well done!
- Her reading and writing is brilliant and has really come on leaps and bounds since reception
- My son is a head of where he needs to be
- Great explanation about the teaching methods and what we can do to enforce it at home
- My daughter is a head of where she needs to be. I feel the school gives plenty of feedback, I am very pleased
- I am very pleased with my daughters progress and she is continuing to improve everyday
- Very impressed with her progress
- Really happy with my sons progress in reading and can see an improvement in his writing too
- I feel there has been a massive leap forward in my sons learning in year 1. We are shocked by how much progress he has made
- The first terms seems to have accelerated my daughters thirst to learn

Do you feel your child receives an appropriate amount of homework for their age?

Yes	No
40	1

- My son loves his homework
- No more, please!
- Discussed, not for challenge but to keep child engaged when out of school. Will set more challenging homework and start spellings after half term
- My son has a lot of fun doing his homework at mums and dads and loves finding out what his new piece is each week
- My daughter enjoys completing work at home
- My son enjoys doing his homework, and it is good for us as we can get an idea of what they are covering in class
- Yes, once a week is perfect and get new reading books each night which my son now looks forward to reading

Have you had any concerns?

Yes	No
7	34

If so, do you feel that those concerns were dealt with effectively?

Yes	No
7	-

- No concerns at all. Very happy with my sons progress
- There was an isolated incident which the teacher has dealt with
- My daughter was upset about her talking partner and I spoke to Miss and she dealt with this straight away. I also seen my daughter playing on her own and Miss kept an eye on her
- Worried about having no friends and wanting to go home. Apparently this has passed now and the teacher has said she will watch out for this

What do you think the school does well?

- What can we do better?

- Good to see new, experienced teachers this year. Happy with communication and feedback
- Keeping us informed
- The overall environment is a happy one, and so is my daughter
- Bringing my daughter out of her shell

- Great communication between teachers and parents
- Improve communication. For parent consultations it would be useful to allow parents time to discuss what is needed with the teacher and time to look through the books, fill out the paperwork before the child(ren) are collected from class.
- I couldn't fault St Basil's, brilliant school

Parent Consultation Questionnaire Results
Year 2
Autumn 2017

Is your child happy at school?

Yes	No
33	2

- Enjoys coming to school and learning
- My son feels the work is too hard and too much
- My daughter always strives to do her best and puts 100% in. Really enjoys school
- My son really enjoys coming to school and looks forward to coming
- He has made friends quickly and likes his teachers
- Getting him into school can be a challenge but once he's in he enjoys it
- My daughter loves coming to school
- My son has settled well in year 2

Do you feel your child is making good progress?

Yes	No
35	0

- Very pleased with my daughters progress
- Yes, my son has come on more in the past few weeks and is more confident
- My son is coming on so well, so pleased
- Miss Limbert was very helpful and we feel we could ask her anything
- Reading and writing especially. We will help to challenge her maths at home too
- Excellent progress as always, going from strength to strength
- The feedback has been really helpful and we know exactly which areas to address and support further

Do you feel your child receives an appropriate amount of homework for their age?

Yes	No
32	3

- The regular routine and structure of homework tasks has been really good for my son
- His writing is improving a lot and I think the little extra work helps with that
- We love the sheet that allows us to choose which homework we want her to do that week

- I feel that my daughter receives enough homework
- My daughter does not like homework, this becomes a challenge
- His attitude to homework has massively improved and he wants to do it
- With other activities, it used to be difficult to get homework done. Having a choice of homework activities helps to keep my daughter interested

Have you had any concerns?

Yes	No
7	28

If so, do you feel that those concerns were dealt with effectively?

Yes	No
7	-

- My daughter is struggling at home with homework and wanting to come into school
- He complained of being bullied at playtime and his teachers have addressed the issues

What do you think the school does well?

- What can we do better?

- I think the school is good at helping with individuals and addressing any concerns raised by parents
- They do everything well, my son is happy, I can't see any improvement needed
- Possibly offering more after school opportunities for working parents to come in and join the school other than parents evening
- Very pleased with my sons schooling. If he is happy, I am happy
- Bringing on children's confidence really well
- Communicating with my child and me

Parent Consultation Questionnaire Results
Year 3
Autumn 2017

Is your child happy at school?

Yes	No
36	0

- Yes, really happy and loves coming to school
- I'm happy that my daughter is happy in school
- He loves to learn new things
- So much happier this year
- My daughter loves coming to school
- My son loves to learn new things. He soaks up information like a sponge

Do you feel your child is making good progress?

Yes	No
36	0

- I feel my son struggles at times but the school (teacher) encourages him to believe in himself and his work
- I am so proud of my son, his work and attitude seem consistent and his teachers views on him are similar to mine
- Spoke to Miss Evans, lovely, very helpful
- I can see his improvements daily
- He is learning new things all the time and he shares what he has learnt with me
- My daughter is progressing well in year 3, I'm really proud
- Really impressed with the progress my daughter had made so far

Do you feel your child receives an appropriate amount of homework for their age?

Yes	No
36	0

- Yes, happy with the amount
- I find it hard to settle my daughter down to do homework at times
- Sometimes it's too much
- My daughter enjoys doing homework

Have you had any concerns?

Yes	No
6	31

If so, do you feel that those concerns were dealt with effectively?

Yes	No
5	1

- Handwriting and spelling
- I feel my son struggles with concentration and his phonics
- My son has a defeatist attitude but I believe the school is trying to help with this
- My daughters confidence

What do you think the school does well?

- What can we do better?

- Great organisation, many trips with children. This is the best way for children to learn and practise and remember important facts
- The school is great – no complaints
- Overall really good, no concerns
- I am happy with everything about St Basil's and have no thoughts on how you can do better
- Dealing with issues/bullying
- I think bullying can be dealt with better
- Communicate very well
- Learn musical instruments in lower year juniors e.g. after school club, flute, clarinet etc
- I think the school encourages the children to learn without too much worry and/or pressure
- Engages well to include parents to masses and assemblies, etc. I think personal results of exams and tests should be sent home to parents to monitor their child's progression

Parent Consultation Questionnaire Results
Year 4
Autumn 2017

Is your child happy at school?

Yes	No
29	1

- My son enjoys school and likes his teacher. He is keen to tell us about lessons he has enjoyed
- No, but it's more to do with class groups rather than work or teacher
- Very happy this year
- He always speaks positively about school
- My son really likes his class and has a lot of friends

Do you feel your child is making good progress?

Yes	No
30	0

- My sons handwriting has really improved this term
- Yes, I can see improvements in his work books and he is moving forward in his work
- Always kept up to date with progress
- Very happy with the feedback from the teacher
- Excellent progress
- I am really happy with the progress my daughter is making in school
- Seems to be taking in what he's learning and proud of what he knows

Do you feel your child receives an appropriate amount of homework for their age?

Yes	No
30	0

- She enjoys homework
- Love being given extra to challenge him by his class teacher
- I hope she can receive more homework
- Just right
- My daughter enjoys her homework and especially reading

Have you had any concerns?

Yes	No
5	25

If so, do you feel that those concerns were dealt with effectively?

Yes	No
5	-

- These have now been dealt with and I feel reassured after today
- Spoken to teacher about inappropriate behaviour/language from other children
- If we have, they have been dealt with efficiently
- The teacher said he would work on it
- Dealt with already

What do you think the school does well?

- What can we do better?

- I was happy with how quickly my daughter being upset in school was dealt with by Mrs Brady & Mrs O'Donnell
- Seems to be a good balance at focussing on everything they need to do and pushing them to improve
- Both of my children have been on trips in the first half term which I am really pleased about. I think my son should have been challenged about not completing homework. He didn't seem to think it was a problem that he didn't complete it
- Very pleased with the school, no problems
- Communication is very good
- Not concerned about OFSTED report – direction of travel is good
- We think the school is improving all the time! Teaching and learning
- We think the school is wonderful
- Pushes children to their full potential

Parent Consultation Questionnaire Results
Year 5
Autumn 2017

Is your child happy at school?

Yes	No
15	1

- My son is enjoying year 5 and has settled well into his new class
- My son enjoys school, he is happy when he comes into school
- My daughter lacks confidence. This isn't helped by certain children making mean comments
- He really enjoys school and learning and is enthusiastic about coming
- My daughter is enjoying year 5 so far. She does come home happy with the things she has been doing and is excited for the next day
- My daughter is happy in school but has raised a few concerns about disruptions in her class. I have discussed this with Mrs Armstrong and have been reassured this is being dealt with

Do you feel your child is making good progress?

Yes	No
16	0

- Very happy with the progress my daughter is making this term. Settled well back into class after a few close friends leaving
- He just needs to focus his energy
- Teachers have put things in place to help with the aspects my son finds difficult
- I have no concerns about my sons progress
- Slow progress but getting a little bit better
- After attending parents evening I was happy to receive good reports about my son. He is doing well. I am very happy

Do you feel your child receives an appropriate amount of homework for their age?

Yes	No
14	2

- I do believe he does receive an appropriate amount; however some pieces of homeworking my son has found difficult because he hasn't done a lot of it in class. Most homework he is find with though
- Yes and it's good to know the schedule to what to expect and when

- Able to complete homework in a timely way
- It's a struggle to get him to commit to it sometimes but when he gets into the research or Learning Challenge he does great
- I feel that sometimes there is too much homework making it difficult to spend time on reading/spelling each night

Have you had any concerns?

Yes	No
5	11

If so, do you feel that those concerns were dealt with effectively?

Yes	No
5	-

- I have addressed them with the teacher and SENCO
- I was concerned that his homework had not been marked but have spoken to Miss Robertson and she has reassured me that this would be sorted
- Good parent teacher communication
- Miss Robertson was very approachable and eased my worries

What do you think the school does well?

- What can we do better?

- I would like to think that after the Ofsted report the school will make good improvements. It concerns me the high turnover of staff, as it is crucial for our children's development and learning for teachers to stay in the role. When teachers leave during the term it has a detrimental effects on our children's learning
- Happy to see new experienced teachers this term. Felt really reassured that our concerns where already getting dealt with. Good at keeping us informed
- I am pleased with everything, no improvements needed
- Yes. Very happy with St Basil's still
- Communication. I feel the school is approachable and has lots of opportunities to come and join in with my child's learning

Parent Consultation Questionnaire Results
Year 6
Autumn 2017

Is your child happy at school?

Yes	No
28	0

- My son has settled in very well in year 6. He has a good set of friends in class and likes his teacher a lot
- My son is really enjoying year 6 and is doing well
- My daughter enjoys coming to school
- Yes, my daughter is really happy, she likes her teacher Mr Hartley and is enjoying the subjects she's learning
- Very happy

Do you feel your child is making good progress?

Yes	No
28	0

- His teacher has been very informative and has advised that she will contact me if she feels my son's progress is slipping. However, it would be useful to be informed about specific subjects or pieces of work that my child has done. I would appreciate any information regarding exams and results etc
- He is really trying at home
- My son seems to be making progress in all areas and is concentrating more on his school work
- My daughter's progress is amazing. She is progressing everyday
- Yes, I am fully up-to-date on everything
- Yes, I'm happy with the progress she is making especially with her SATs coming up
- All very helpful

Do you feel your child receives an appropriate amount of homework for their age?

Yes	No
26	2

- I think my son could benefit from more homework to prepare him for high school so that she doesn't think it is such a big deal

- Too much
- My son always completes his homework
- It evens itself out nicely

Have you had any concerns?

Yes	No
3	23

If so, do you feel that those concerns were dealt with effectively?

Yes	No
3	-

- He is chatty which effects his concentration
- Class disruption was an issue last year and this seems to be less so this year
- No concerns

What do you think the school does well?

- What can we do better?

- I am very pleased with the school and the curriculum
- Knowing each individual child and their needs
- My son has received lots of support over his time at school
- I think the school is doing a great job, there's nothing really that they need to do better
- I think the communication/app/letters are better
- Communication with parents could be better
- Communicates well, professional throughout